

Each Aggie Matters Student Ambassador Internship

Position Description

Each Aggie Matters (EAM) is recruiting up to 10 EAM Ambassadors for the 2020 - 2021 academic year. Each Aggie Matters is UC Davis' Mental Health Movement creating an open and affirming dialogue about mental health. All student positions are supervised by the Mental Well-Being (MWB) Health Promotion Specialist under Student Health and Counseling Services.

Position Description

The goal for the EAM Ambassador Internship is to build student mental health awareness, encourage help-seeking behavior, and connect students to appropriate mental health resources. Ambassadors exemplify leadership, professionalism, compassion and the desire to promote and prioritize mental health at UC Davis. Position duties include:

- Participate in outreach and tabling efforts throughout the year
- Conduct campus and community environmental scans for our UC Davis Mental Health Map
- Facilitate student presentations on campus
- Connect students to mental health resources both on and off-campus
- Participate in campus walks, activities and other opportunities to support student mental health
- Additional projects as needed

Requirements

- Attend mandatory weekly team meetings on Mondays from 3:10pm - 4:00pm throughout the 2020 - 2021 academic year
- Attend mandatory continuing education / training workshops on Wednesdays from 3:10pm - 4:00pm during fall 2020
- Become certified in Question, Persuade, Refer and Mental Health First Aid by December 2020
- Complete 40 internship hours each quarter (4 hours per week) throughout the academic year
- Attend our mandatory student training on 9/14, 9/15 and 9/16. See additional details below under "Time Commitment."

Application Process

This is a competitive application and interview process. All interested students should apply via Handshake referencing #3727627. Upon application submission, you will be contacted to confirm your interview slot. Please be prepared to provide references upon request. Applications are due Monday, May 4th by 4:00pm. If you have any questions, please reach Emilia George at emiliageorge@ucdavis.edu.

Time Commitment

This is an unpaid internship position that requires a three-quarter commitment. All Ambassadors are required to attend a mandatory student training prior to the start of fall quarter on the following dates: 9/14, 9/15 and 9/16.