Spring 2021 to Winter 2022 Fellowship

$70K Fellowship Opportunity

Includes 1 year salary, tuition, travel, research and conference expenses (up to $70K supported by the Innovation Institute for Food & Health).

Eligibility

All UC Davis post-doctoral fellows or PhD students in their last 1-2 years of study are invited to apply. Multiple and repeat applications are welcomed to any and all open opportunities.

Elemental Excelerator Fellowship

Elemental Excelerator is a Hawaii and California based accelerator that connects commercial opportunities to entrepreneurs building world changing companies. Every year, they provide up to $1M to each of 15-20 mission-aligned ventures in energy, water, agriculture, transportation, circular economy and beyond. Elemental is working to address the lack of food resiliency and rising greenhouse gas emissions associated with food production, distribution and waste.

The March Fund Fellowship

The March Fund is committed to supporting entrepreneurs and companies developing transformative biotechnologies, machine intelligence and sustainable nutrition solutions. The March Fund was founded by Christopher Lai, former investor at Horizons Ventures; Dr. Harold Schmitz, former Chief Science Officer of Mars, Incorporated, and Senior Scholar at the UC Davis Graduate School of Management; and Wang Rui, former CEO of Red Bull Vitamin Drink Co., Ltd and current Founder & CEO of QiFeng.
