Your Major + Accounting Minor = success

The accounting minor offered by the Graduate School of Management (GSM) at UC Davis is a 20-unit minor that focuses on understanding the preparation of financial statements and usefulness of accounting information for decision makers. The minor provides the foundation of accounting coursework that forms the basis for advanced accounting topics or a graduate degree in accounting. The minor is a suitable complement for any undergraduate major.

The minor requires two prerequisite classes (8 units of elementary accounting equivalent to MGT 11A and MGT 11B) and five upper level accounting courses (that must be taken at UC Davis):

- MGT 101 Sources and uses of accounting information
- MGT 103 Intermediate Accounting I
- MGT 105 Intermediate Accounting II
- MGT 107 Intermediate Accounting III
- MGT 170 Managing costs and quality
